

CHARTER FOR THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ALBERTSONS COMPANIES, INC.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of Albertsons Companies, Inc. is to carry out the responsibilities delegated by the Board of Directors of Albertsons Companies, Inc. (the “Board”) relating to the review and determination of executive compensation, including to (1) determine and approve the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, and review and approve the compensation of all other executive officers of Albertsons Companies, Inc., (2) review, establish and modify compensation, benefits and incentive plans, programs and policies applicable to executive officers of Albertsons Companies, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”), (3) review, establish and modify any equity-based plans that are subject to the approval of the Board, (4) review and approve compensation and awards under compensation and incentive plans and programs for executive officers of the Company, (5) review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to various benefits and other compensation programs, packages and policies as appropriate, (6) administer the equity compensation plans as designated by the Board, and (7) monitor succession plans relating to positions held by executive officers and other senior management of the Company.

In performing its duties, the Committee will undertake those specific duties and responsibilities listed below and such other duties as the Board may from time to time prescribe.

MEMBERSHIP

The Committee will consist of at least three (3) members of the Board, one of whom shall act as Chairperson and be designated as such by the Board. The members of the Committee will be appointed by and will serve at the discretion of the Board, and may be removed from the Committee at any time with or without cause. Each Committee member shall have experience in setting or reviewing compensation policies and practices. Each Committee member shall satisfy the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) as well as the Company’s director independence standards, but shall not be required to do so for as long as the Company is a “controlled company” as defined in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual (the “Listed Company Manual”) or as permitted by any applicable transition period. At least two (2) Committee members shall qualify as a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). In addition, at least two (2) of the Committee members shall qualify as “outside directors” under the regulations promulgated under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

MEETINGS

The Committee may establish its own schedule but will meet at least two (2) times per year. Additional meetings may be conducted as the need arises.

Two-thirds (2/3) of all the members of the Committee will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the vote of a majority of all members of the Committee shall be the act of the Committee. Meetings need not be in person and may be conducted via conference call or other similar communications equipment so long as each member can hear and participate in the conversation. In lieu of a meeting, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent, which unanimous written consent will be filed with the minutes of the Committee meetings.

A formal agenda for each meeting will be prepared and, after approval by the Chairperson of the Committee, will be distributed along with any background materials to each member sufficiently prior to each meeting to permit meaningful review.

The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's outside counsel, outside auditor or any external parties whose advice and counsel are relevant to the issues then being considered by the Committee to attend a meeting of the Committee, or to meet with any member of, or consultants to, the Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the CEO and other executive officers of the Company shall not be present at any time when their compensation or performance is being determined or discussed among the members of the Committee. Consistent with any applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the NYSE, the Committee shall have the sole and exclusive authority, as it deems appropriate, to retain and/or replace, or obtain the advice of, any independent legal counsel, compensation and benefits consultants and other outside experts or advisors as the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or other advisors retained by the Committee. Subject to any exceptions permitted under NYSE rules, the Committee may have the authority to select any compensation consultants, legal counsel or other advisors to the Committee only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to that person's independence from management, including the factors required by any applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and NYSE rules. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee in its sole and exclusive discretion, for payment of compensation to any such persons retained by the Committee. The Committee will evaluate whether any compensation consultant retained or to be retained by it has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(d)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K.

MINUTES

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings which shall be circulated in draft form to all committee members and considered for approval by the Committee at a subsequent meeting. The Company Secretary, or in his or her absence, any person appointed by the Chairperson, shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof. The Chairperson shall report on the Committee's actions, recommendations or findings at the next meeting of the Board. After approval, minutes and all actions by written consent will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Committee.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee's policies and procedures shall remain flexible to enable the Committee to react to changes in circumstances and conditions so that it can fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees or members of senior management as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. In addition to such other duties as the Board may from time to time assign, the Committee will:

1. Periodically review the Company's overall compensation philosophy and evaluate its programs and policies to ensure that the compensation payable to the Company's executive officers is set at overall competitive pay levels that attract, retain and appropriately reward performance and create proper incentives that are aligned with the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders.
2. Review and approve annually the corporate goals and objectives applicable to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), conduct and review with the Board an annual evaluation of the performance of the CEO in light of those goals and objectives, and determine and approve the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation. In evaluating and determining CEO compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation ("Say on Pay Vote") required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.
3. Review and approve periodically the compensation (including salaries, target bonus percentages, incentives, equity and perquisites) of all other executive officers of the Company. The Committee will coordinate, and review with the CEO, the Board's annual review of the performance of other executive officers. In evaluating and determining executive compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote.
4. Review periodically and make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of the Board and Board committee members.
5. Review periodically, and as appropriate approve, compensation, incentive, severance, change of control, perquisite and other benefits policies and programs applicable to the Company's executive officers and as appropriate, adopt, amend, and terminate such plans. In reviewing and approving incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans, including whether to adopt, amend or terminate any such policies and programs, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote.
6. Administer the Company's various incentive plans, stock plans and equity arrangements that may be adopted by the Company from time to time, with such authority and powers as are set forth in the respective plans' instruments, including but not limited to establishing performance metrics, determining incentive payouts and the granting of equity awards to employees and executive officers, in each case subject to all applicable policies adopted by the Board.

7. Review for approval or disapproval special hiring or termination packages for executive officers of the Company and, to the extent it deems necessary, advise the Board regarding the same.
8. To the extent it deems necessary, recommend to the Board the establishment or modification of employee stock-based plans for the Company.
9. To the extent it deems necessary, review and advise the Board regarding other compensation plans.
10. Review and discuss with management the Company's Compensation Discussion and Analysis ("CD&A") and the related executive compensation information, recommend to the Board that the CD&A and related executive compensation information be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K and proxy statement, and produce the Committee report on executive officer compensation required to be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K.
11. Review the Company's incentive compensation arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, review and discuss at least annually the relationship between risk management policies and practices and compensation, and evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate any such risk.
12. Review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Company will conduct Say on Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say on Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, and review and approve the proposals regarding the Say on Pay Vote, the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote and other executive compensation matters to be included in the Company's proxy statement.
13. Review periodically the succession plans relating to positions held by executive officers and other senior management of the Company and major organizational or structural changes.
14. Review the administration and operation of the Company's retirement and welfare plans by the internal Benefits Plan Committee (or any successor thereto). Such review is not intended to appoint, delegate or convey to the Committee any fiduciary duty or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any Company plan fiduciary.
15. Periodically review management's culture, diversity and inclusion policies and initiatives.
16. Conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of its duties under the Committee's charter and present the results of the evaluation to the Board. The Committee shall conduct this evaluation in such manner as it deems appropriate.
17. Periodically review the Committee's charter, structure, processes and membership requirements and submit any recommended changes to the Board.

In addition to the above responsibilities, the Committee will undertake such other duties as the Board delegates to it, and will report, at least annually, to the Board regarding the Committee's examinations and recommendations.

CONTROLLED COMPANY DISCLOSURE

For so long as the Company is a "controlled company" (as defined in Section 303A.00 of the Listed Company Manual), the Company shall provide the disclosure required by Item 407(a) of Regulation S-K in its proxy statement or Form 10-K, as applicable, including that the Company is not in compliance with Section 303A.04 of the Listed Company Manual and is relying on the "controlled company" exemption with respect to the membership of its Compensation Committee, along with the basis on which the Company has concluded that this exemption is available to it.

Approved and adopted by the Board on the 26th day of February, 2020.
